Arrest In L.G. Drug Store Brings Suit for $250,000

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The county counsel's office today is studying a $250,000 damage claim by a family of a La Mesa man who died shortly after being arrested in a Lemon Grove drug store and booked on intoxication charges.

The claim filed with the Board of Supervisors charges that the Sheriff's office "ignored a request for hospitalization" for Charles William Miller, of 7308 Canton dr., and he died shortly afterward "as a direct and proximate result" of not obtaining medical assistance.

Miller's wife and children filed the claim through a La Mesa attorney.

Miller entered the Lemon Grove Rexall store at 11 a.m., on Oct. 7, 1963, asking assistance, saying he was ill, according to the claim.

The druggist, M. E. Carlin, called the sheriff's office and notified them of Miller's condition, said the claim, and Deputy Sheriff R. E. Dandburg investigated.

Carlin said he called the sheriff's office because he believed the man needed hospitalization.

The claim charges that Landburg ignored a request for hospitalization and "instead booked the decedent for being intoxicated and booked him in county jail".

Miller died later that day of a coronary occlusion as a result of not receiving medical assistance, the claim charges.

Customer Foils Market Holdup By Socking Would-be Robber

An attempted robbery i Spring Valley didn't quite je Sunday night.

The youthful would-be robbe was thwarted by a custome who socked him and pursue him from the store.

He got no money.

A youthful-appearing mal with a hat pulled low on his head demanded the contents o the cash register from Hellen Caroline Thompson, a clerk at the Speedimart store at 2840 Bancroft st., S.V., Sunday at 10 p.m.

All might have gone well for the culprit had not Frederick Miller Crockett, a customer who lives at 3814 Haines st., in San Diego been standing nearby.

Crockett struck the robber who was pointing an object in his coat pocket that resembled a gun. The surprised robber

ALL NEWS CENSORED IN NEAR EAST, BRACE TELLS MEN'S CLUB

A dramatic description of life in Beirut, Lebanon, as viewed by a television executive, was told to the Lemon Grove Men's Club Friday by Clayton H. Brace, vice president and general manager of Time-Life Broadcast stations KOGO radio, FM and television in San Diego.

Brace spent two years in Beirut where he operated station CLT. The station transmit on French and Arabic. The station operates under the watchful eye of two censors, both representatives of the Lebanese government, Brace said. All newspaper copy of Labanon's myriad newspapers must first be submitted to the Bureau of Information, too, he said.

His Beirut station, owned jointly by the French government, Lebanese investors and Time-Life, featured such popular shows as belly dancers, singers and Ed Sullivan type shows. Beirut belly-dancers' gyrations and nudity couldn't be shown to family audiences of the U.S., Brace said. But the art form there is highly respected. Singers in Lebanon are emotional. They cry copious tears during rendition of many songs. The audience joins in the tears, too, he said. It is not unusual for songs to last 20 to 35 minutes with everyone shedding tears all the while.

Brace said desire for communication rangs highest in the near east. He related how a shiekdom underwent an uprising in August. The shiek, after the revolt, had a survey made to see what his people really wanted.

They wanted mostly, according to Brace, movie theatres. Next was tv. Education and medical aid were 15th and 16th.

Brace is scheduled to make the major speech Thursday at the El Cajon Elks club Salute to Communicattions program.

At the Men's Club, Brace was accompanied by Leroy Bellwood, director of engineering at KOGO. Bellwood is a Lemon Grove resident.

The club will hear Charles victory this week. He is vice president of the San Diego area office of the Bank of America.

He supervises all phases of public relations and business development in the 41 branches in San Diego.

He is immediate past chairman of the World Trade Committee of the S.D. Chamber of Commerce and is now in an advisory capacity for this committee. He is a member of the Industrial Growth Committee, as well as Traffic and Transportation and the Mexico Committee.

He is a member of the county-wide Red Cross Board of Directors, member of the Finance Committee of the Boy Scouts of America, member of the Propeller Club and member of the Navy League.

The club will also conduct an election Friday. Nominations will be accepted from the floor as is the custom, Jack Cummings. retiring president said.

Local Members Favor LG-SV School Merger

The most feasible combination of elementary school districts would be that of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, Frank Armstrong, a Lemon Grove attorney and lay representative of the Lemon Grove district committee on School District Organization reported last week.

He said six unification possibilities were dissussed at the January meeting of the Grossmount Local Study Committee and all but one of them coupled Spring Valley and Lemon Grove. The other consideration was that of Lemon Grove's district remaining intact.

In the Spring Valley- Lemon Grove combination, Highway 94 was seen as the north boundary. La Mesa would then be coupled with Santee. The two districts, Armstrong said, would then be approximately the same in enrollment and assessed valuation.

The 1963 population is 14,800 for the LM-Santee combination and 14,300 for the LG-SV combination. Assessed valuation would be $72 million vs. 86 million with the LG-SV combination being the larger. The greatest variance would be in area where LM-Santee has 40 square miles against 17.3 for the LG-SV district.

Armstrong said the local study committee, of which he and Warren Buckner, Lemon Grove School board representative, and members, did not make a recommendation.

The study on school district organization has been ordered by State Legislature.

Narcotics Raid Here Nets None

Law enforcement officers, 165 of them, swooped down on the county's known narcotics peddlers in a surprise raid early Wednesday morning and apprehended 46 of them on grand jury indictments.

Involved were units of the County sheriff's department, the State narcotics division, police departments of San Diego, Chula Vista, El Cajon, Imperial Beach, National City and the U.S. Customs Department.

San Diego Sheriff Joe O'Connor said that elements of the force were in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley for the early morning round-up but no one in either of the two communities was netted.

The nearest arrest was in El Cajon, O'Connor said.

S.V. Post Office Contract Station To Be Closed

The Spring Valley contract postal station on Campo rd. will be closed down Feb. 8, Clifford Hulbert, the station contractor said.

He said he was notified by letter from Spring Valley Postmaster Mildred Moran that "no real need exists (for the station at 9031 Campo rd.) as evidenced by the receipts".

The station was established when the main post office was moved from its location across the street from the contract station to its new site on Sweetwater rd.

Mrs. Moran said that there were not enough people utilizing the contract station to warrant its continuation.

"All the people in the area served by the contract station get delivery service," she said. "We have a fully-manned classification station including box service, in Casa de Oro and we provide full service from the main office from the Sweetwater rd. main office," she said.

Hulbert operated the contract station in connection with his insurance business, all from the same location.

Moose Bigwigs Survey L.G. For Group's Newest Lodge

E. A. "Bud" Harmon, president of the California Moose Association, was an area visitor during the week-end.

He was here to make an official visit to the Southern District of the organization. The Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area is part of the southernmost of the Mooses' 14 state districts.

Harmon, who is visiting Arthur Ortiz, came here to give impetus to the formation of a new Moose Lodge already underway in Lemon Grove. Ortiz who lives in Lemon Grove is membership director from the national office, and state publicity director. He will be the secretary of the new lodge until proper officials are elected.

Also visiting here was Ted Stano, deputy supreme governor of Moose for California. The trio were guests Monday at the Lemon Grove Rotary club weekly meeting.

Women To March For Dimes Tues.

More than 12,000 volunteers, led by Marilyn Mitchell who is Mrs. America, will visit San Diego County homes Tuesday on behalf of the March of Dimes.

The event is known nationally as the Mothers March; the term, however, Mrs. Mitchell points out, is misleading because dads, daughters and other members of the family frequently join in the activity.

Most of the visitations will be made between 4 and 9 p.m. and all marchers will be properly identified with marchers kits and credentials, Mrs. Mitchell said.

The goal of Mrs. America is top last year's effort which amounted to more than $75,000.

March of Dimes funds now being used to research the causes of birth defects and arthritis, to provide medical assistance at 75 treatment centers throughout the country and to care for the forgotten thousands who were stricken with polio before Dr. Jonas Salk developed his vaccine under a March of Dimes grant.

Lemon Grove Woman Ordered To Pay $111 Fine for Overdue Library Books

Mrs. Helen Tuve

A Lemon Grove woman, Mrs. Helen Tuve of 3218 Kempf st., found out Tuesday that a library copy of "To Have and To Hold" was not hers to have and to hold for more than two weeks.

Mrs. Tuve was fined $111 for failing to return the book along with four other books. Tuesday she was ordered by Municipal Court Judge Roger Ruffin to pay the fines. She was placed on three-year's probation with the condition that she pay the fines.

Mrs. Tuve was charged with checking the five books out of the library in April and May of last year and returning some of them as late as Jan. 2. Library records showed Mrs. Tuve owed $133.06 in unpaid fines since 1961.

The library deducted the cost of the five books which had been returned or paid for.

During her Municipal Court trial, Mrs. Tuve was assisted by her 16-year-old daughter, Pamela, who is a straight A student at Mount Higuel High School.

Mrs. Tuve claimed it was a series of illnesses and not neglect that kept her from returning the books on time.

She said the books were lost in her home.

Mrs. Tuve is a second-grade teacher in Jamul.

The city said Mrs. Tuve was notified by mail in May, June and July that the books were overdue. It was claimed she did not acknowledge the notices until Dec. 31 when she returned one of the five books.

Try Hiring A Youngster

From Mrs. Irma Harding, youth placement interviewer for the State of California Department of Employment came a plaintive communication last week. It was a letter of thanks for our aid in letting the public know that youngsters were available for work during the Christmas vacation.

She asked us not to publish her letter, and we won't but in the interest of serving the youth of our community we feel obligated to make dult readers aware of some of the problems our youngsters face.

Toward that end we are printing only this poignant paragraph from her letter:

". . . if I become a headache to employers, I'm sorry. But no one can have contact with youngsters who want and need jobs without becoming sincerely interested in them (to the BARGAIN SEEKERS — Women thronged to the sale held last week at the Lemon Grove Yardage. The sale, advertised in this newspaper, produced crowds that had to be controlled by a door guard. The store's owner, Mrs. Lenore Moore, said she had reached a point where her lease required renewing and she had to decide whether to retire now. 'I'm a grandmother with one two-year-old and two more arriving real quick and real close together. So I decided to be a real grandma."

The store, at 7816 Broadway, will carry on the sale until the stock is depleted. "It looks like two more weeks will do it," Mrs. Moore said.

'Wooden Shoes' Topic For L.G. Methodists At Sunday Service

The sermon title for Sunday. at the Lemon Grove Methodist Church will be "Wooden Shoes". It will deal with the task of every Christian to understand why we must have missions. The scripture reference is Luke 1:46-53, Dr. Jordan E. Detzer said.

The four Sunday nights in February will be devoted to the study of missions, why we have them and why we should support them. Bill Colson, mission commissions chairman, said the 6:30-8 p.m. meetings will be spent with a panel discussion and either a guest speaker or slides with narration. Rev. Arthur Kent will play the role of "The Devils Advocate" and try to stump the panel with questions.

There will be a special installation service Sunday, the 26th at 7 p.m. for the newly elected officers of the senior high MYF. The following youth will be installed at the candlelight services: Ken Brown, president; David Cox, vice-president; Gail McCollum, program chairman; Kathy Neal, treasurer; Patty Armstrong, secretary; Bob Kreger, faith; Madelyn Caldara, outreach and citizenship; Doug Hancock, fellowship; Diane Cybrowski, witness; and Ron Denlinger, attorney general. Rev. Detzer will officiate.

The junior high MYF are planning a skating party to be held at the La Mesa ice skating rink, Friday, Jan. 24. They will meet at the church at 7:30 p.m. and are planning a stop for pizza afterward. Call Judy Parker for reservations 463-6178.

Jim Wiley, president of the Men's Club reports they are having their monthly breakfast and work day, Saturday at 7:30 a.m. There will be a hearty breakfast prepared by Paul Mize followed by a devotional given by Reg Owens. All men of the church are invited to attend for a day of fellowship in working to keep our church and grounds in good repair.

'Narcotics' Is Sermon Topic

Speaking on one of the major problems of our day, Rev. Paul Friedmann, L.A., will bring the informative and challenging message "Narcotics, A Christian Challenge" at the First Baptist Church of Encanto, 7166 Jamacha, Sunday morning.

Reports indicate that approximately twenty per cent of the national problem exists in the State of California, and that Southern California is rapidly emerging as the number one narcotic problem area in the nation.

'Hour of Decision' At Christian Church

Mr. Elmer Jenkins, minister of the Lemon Grove Christian Church, at 2590 Main St., Lemon Grove, said that Professor G. B. Gordon and the Evangelettes from Pacific Christian College in Long Beach will be featured in an "Hour of Decision" at the church on Sunday at 11:00 a.m.

During the afternoon there will be a fellowship dinner at 1:30 p.m. and a special program at 2:30 p.m. which will mark the first-year anniversary of the congregation. Professor Gordon and the Evangelette will also be the featured guests at this program.

"Not only is this a cerebration for our church's first birthday," said Mr. Jenkins, "but it is our answer to the dilemma and decision facing Christian youth in the space age." Professor Gordon is head of the communications department of the college, a reserve Air Force Chaplain, radio-television producer, and instructor in the Carnegie Leadership Course.

Accompanying the group as featured speaker is Norihiko Saitoh, of Kobe, Japan, a college student who was converted to Christianity by American missionaries, and has won several honors as a preacher during his two years as Pacific Christian College.

Mr. Jenkins said everyone is invited to attend these programs at the church.

It was necessary to figure the amount of food needed to serve sixty. The children made place mats, invitations. menus and table decorations. Pupil interest remained high during the entire project.

Gehres Says Goldwater Is Best Candidate

by Marcella Frenken

Admiral Les Gehres, USN. (Ret), chairman of the Republican Central Committee, told the Lemon Grove Republican Assembly at a meeting at the "Casa Blanca" that Goldwater is the best Republican choice in '64 to uphold Constitutional Government.

Gehres, long active in San Diego politics and receiver of six Valley Forge Freedom awards and thirteen Navy decorations including the Navy Cross and Purple Heart, said that in his opinion "Rockefeller is just another Kennedy with on older bank account, Romney, a warmed-over Wilkie and Scranton, a town in Pennsylvania".

Commenting on Lyndon Johnson's past record in the Congress and Senate, he pointed out that Johnson's voting record on behalf of Constitutional government was five on a scale of 100. The main topic of Gehres' address concerned the functions and progress of the County Central Committee, which he termed the best organized and most efficient ever in San Diego County.

In other action, the membership took a stand in support of the continuance of non-denominational prayer during kindergarten snacktime in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School district and gave special commendation to board members, Mrs. Anna Dewey and Dr. Padfield, for their stand in support of the majority, thereby "truly representing the people".

A second resolution was passed unanimously in opposition to the current sale of wheat to Russia at $78.5 million, noting that the U. S. taxpayer will be subsidizing this deal in the amount of $26 million and that the actual value of said quantity is $90 million.

The resolution then pointed out that Dr. Edward Teller, father of the H-bomb, had testified several years ago that U.S. surplus wheat was one of the greatest deterents to a nuclear war. This would insure our quick recovery from attack as compared to Russia and her Satellites' ability to do likewise in view of the food shortage in those countries. Stating that they still consider aid to the enemy as treason, the resolution went on to call it "a fantastic give-away".

Distinguished guests included Herb Sickler, administrative assistant to Assemblyman Donovan, and Capt. William C. Ball, 37th Congressional CHA director, who installed the re-elected slate of officers for 1964.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I want to thank you for the many news articles you have printed about our Mt. Miguel Adult classes. We have over 700 enrollments this semester.

This is approximately 15 per cent over last year and I am sure a lot of the credit goes to your paper getting the word around.

According to the 1960 census we are still only scratching the surface as for adults completing high school though. The census shows appoximately 10,000 adults in our area have less than a high school education.

DON KARLSON
Counselor

Dear Editor:

We have a problem in Spring Valley and we are thoroughly convinced other communities in San Diego County are finding it difficult to increase the growth and development of their respective areas. This Chamber as well as others have established various programs to improve their economic condition. We are limited, however, either by funds or active members to promote projects within their communities.

The promotion necessary to stimulate interest in these communities extensively are at a minimum. Action must be taken to indoctrinate a program that would inform the outlying areas of prospects interest in San Diego and other areas. The past year the City of San Diego and the Chamber of Commerce have stated their concern in the present and future growth of our city, county and state. However, when they cannot grant, compensate or find availability within their own boundaries for prospective clients or problems no effort is made to contract the surrounding local governments for a possible site or solution.

It is our estimation that if San Diego County expects to make more rapid progress in the future they must utilize all the sources available. Our current condition is good, but excellance can only be achieved through the cooperation of local and rural governments. It is our direct responsibility, not only as representatives, but as individuals to improve or strengthen our competitive enterprise system.

We hope efforts will be made and steps taken to initiate a close working partnership between local and rural governments. We want to make our economy dynamic and always expanding to equip and encourage businessmen and others to become more responsible citizens, to reduce unemployment by creating productive programs. We would like to see joint meetings made available to keep us constantly aware and informed of our ultimate goal to make San Diego County a better place to live, work. and play.

Charles R. Tinkham
President
Spring Valley
Chamber of Commerce

Dear Editor:

The people of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District should thank God that there are still trustees with enough discernment to distinguish an issue, enough integrity to refuse to violate their oath of office and enough perspicacity to defend our Constitution and the democratic processes against all attack, however insidious or asinine.

To see an auditorium filled with people urging our school board to direct our teachers to disregard a Supreme Court ruling (and our county counsel's interpretation of it) because they didn't agree with it, was shocking. To listen to these people harassing conscientious board members, impugning their integrity, undermining their judgement, and questioning their loyalty, was disgusting. I wondered how many had written to their congressman appealing the ruling or initiating a change in the law; or how many had really pondered the American concept of liberty.

It became increasingly evident that these people, as citizens, lack understanding of the basic precepts of our Constitition with it's guarantees, and, as parents, must be the ones who would place full responsibility on teachers to infuse patriotism, inject moral fiber, and inspire love of God and liberty, the basis of which, in my opinion, is in the home, and the lack of which is evident in such disgraceful attack on public servants. Are these the people who would abolish the 5th Amendment because of its misuse?

Freedom of speech, to some parents, apparently means freedom to harass, to attack not issues, but individuals. Teachers of their children must have a particularly difficult time; the same teachers who, incidentally. I feel, would have been mature and conscientious enough to have interpreted the county counsel's opinion individually.

I congratulate Mr. Andreen, Mr. Johnson and Mrs. Burnett for the courage and rationality they displayed in facing such insolent abuse and embracing the real issue of their right to regulate.

It's hate of man that divides people, no love of God.

Dear Edior:

Enjoyed your views in an article written on a new bill governing the electronic repair dealers, I always welcome unbiased view points.

While I feel this bill leaves a lot to be desired, it is a start for us. We as a local organization hope to use this bill to help upgrade the electronic repair profession. Plans are for an apprenticeship training program plus an intensive campaign to police our local repair facilities to see that they adhere to our code of ethics.

Thank you again for your views.

point where you share) their problems."

Our own theory is that one of the weaknesses of our country is that youngsters find jobs too hard to get. Young people often fail to achieve maturity with the ability to cope with human problems because most of them have never had a chance to work until they become adults.

Union control, state and federal regulations create problems for those who would give youngsters steady work.

Jousting with these windmills is Mrs. Harding, whose Youth Employment Office in the Grossmont High School administration building is making some headway against an almost complete impasse.

Her effort is not altogether in vain because, at least, she is able to supply willing youngsters to do your house, garden, office or store work without the usual red tape that accompanies other governmental functions. These youngsters work seriously and the pay requirements are lower than the regular federal and state minimums.

We have gotten some mighty fine part-time help through her office, and we recommend it to you.

Reports Discounters Bilk Housewife

John W. Anderson, a mid-west manufacturer who has built up a fine business by providing quality products at competitive prices, delivered a talk recently to a convention of Automotive Wholesalers of Illinois in which he spelled out the hazards of discount syndrome.

He calls for quality stabilization to protect both the public and the producers from the discounters.

Anderson, who recently celebrated his 80th birthday with his 1,200 employes at his plant in Gary, Indiana, told the convention that the retail discount monopoly, once firmly established, exorts at will from the public — while it dictates to the producer — the manufacturer of trademarked products — the price at which he must sell, and to whom he must sell. Thus the manufacturer is forced to cheapen the quality of labor and material used in his production.

Quality goes down faster than the price but to the defenseless consumer, the well-known product may look the same. The public is tricked. The manufacturer is damaged greatly.

The bait of the discounter is price, Anderson pointed out Except in relation to what you get for what you pay, price means nothing, he said. The shrewd housewife—guardian of the family budget—is then compelled to relate value to price.

The discounter must have those lower and lower costs so he can make further cuts in retail prices in his battle to divert store traffic from competing discounters — each preying, with all the cunning of advanced trade trickery, upon the hunger of the uninformed consumer for "a bargain."

Discounterism is being directed by masters of vast pools of capital for loan or investment far removed from the field of grass roots economics. Few of these have any concept of the problems the average American housewife has as she fights, often with her back to the wall, to stretch her budget to keep her family fed and clothed.

The damage, Anderson, avers, comes from a sort of inverted inflation which is costing the consumers billions of dollars a year in values if housewives are deceived by the "trade trickery" of the discounters.

Anderson is also president of the Quality Brands Associates of America.

STATE WATER PROJECT — The map shows the water projects under contruction for California's water program, described by Water Resources Director William Warne as a utility with the continuing purpose of making water available to areas of need. The project will move excess flood flows of northern streams southward.

Water, Water Everywhere Is Goal of State Project

by William E, Warne

(This is the fourth of a series of six articles on California water development by the director of the California State Department of Water Resources, who has administered resources development programs for state, federal and international government since 1935.)

SACRAMENTO — The State Water Project has as its purpose the redistribution of California water from areas of surplus to places where local waters are being used and more is needed.

Generally the purpose of this utility is to move excess flood flows of northern streams southward.

The California Aqueduct, which is the main artery of the initial facilities, extends from the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta near Tracy to Perris in Riverside County, 444 miles down the state.

The State Water Project now under construction will store, conserve and distribute 4,000,000 acre-feet of water each year.

The most intense period of formulation of the pattern of water services from this giant utility has been the three years between the election in Nov. 1960 at which the financing of the project was authorized and Dec. 31, 1963, when the initial contracting period was closed.

We have completed water service contracts with 20 agencies, large and small. These contracts cover a total of 3,-162,000 acre-feet out of the four million acre-feet annual yield of the project.

The twenty agencies range from the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, which has contracted to take 1,500,000 acre-feet of water a year, and the Kern County Water Agency, which has contracted to take 1,000,000 acre-feet, to the Littlerock Creek Irrigation District, which has contracted for 2,000 acre-feet and the Crestline-Lake Arrowhead Water Agency, which has contracted for 5,000 acre-feet annually.

They will serve areas in Alameda, Santa Clara, Kern, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, San Bernardino, Riverside, and Imperial Counties.

We have managed, within the plan of the water utility, to devise ways to serve all types of users, irrigators as well as domestic, industrial and municipal users.

Several additional water supply contracts already have been approved and are now being readied for signature. A number of others beyond there are under active negotiation and at least several of them may be expected to mature.

Our purposes and assignment has been to provide all areas that may expect to develop needs for additional water supplies by 1990 the opportunity now to plan to fill those needs through the facilities of the State Water Project by entering contracts for supplies from the 4,000,000 acre-foot pool.

In canvassing water districts and agencies of the state I believe we have overlooked no one. Every appropriate agency that we have been able to identify has been solicited to consider its needs with us. We have stated again and again that we want to have no dry islands, no spots to wither as California's growth and development goes forward during the next 30 years.

Happily, I can say that most areas of recognized need are covered by agencies which either have signed contracts or are still considering them and may sign them before the deadline. Some few agencies have judged their alternatives and have found another method of meeting their needs more desirable, or they have viewed the possibility of growth in their future with less confidence than we might have, and they have not joined in the program of this first phase of the water development.

The push for completion of the first round of contracting was triggered by a provision in the prototype contract with the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California which required the the water supply contracting to be completed by December 31, 1963. After that date contractors of record at that time are to have an option to buy more of any of the 4,-000,000 acre-feet that remains unsold. The purpose of the cut-off date is to make it possible for the Department of Water Recources to determine final sizes in September 1964 of the facilities of the California Aqueduct so that they may be constricted in time to begin delivery of water in 1971 at Castaic Reservoir and 1972 at Perris. The purpose of the option provision is to give the water supply contractors and the state and opportunity to bring the project out whole at its contemplated capacity of 4,000,000 acre-feet.

As noted, the California State Water Project is a utility with a continuing purpose of making water available to areas of need.

The initial facilities now being constructed will not be the last. The law provides for the addition of needed facilities later.

Therefore, the first round of contracting that ended December 31, 1963, will not be the last, but agencies which delay beyond this cut-off date will not participate in the initial stage of the State Water Project. Later stages will go into planning and construction when sufficent need develops, probably several years before 1990, the target date of full service of this initial stage.

Mt. Miguel Wrestlers to Compete With Japanese High School Champs

The National High School Wrestling Champions of Japan will compete with the Mount Miguel High School varsity squad on Wednesday, Jan. 29.

The last scheduled meet on their California tour and the only meet in the San Diego area will be staged in the Mount Miguel gymnasium at 7:30 p.m.

For the fourth year, these national champions, under the guidance of Ischiro Hatta, president of amateur wrestling in Japan, propose to "develop and strengthen fellowship, understanding, and goodwill through international athletic competition."

The eight Japanese boys, all eighteen-year-old high school graduates, will meet the Matador varsity wrestlers whose weights match theirs.

The Miguel squad, undefeated in 1964 league matches, will have their best men on the mat for this match, considered by Matador coach Ned Blass as a "real challenge" for his boys.

Public contributions help establish a two-week training camp considered "a must if American wrestlers are to compete on even terms with the Japanese".

Admission costs will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students, and the game will be followed by an open house in the gym for both teams.

Wrestling Has Double Power At Helix High

Bakers may need 13 for a baker's dozen but Helix only needs 12 for a wrestling dozen — a dozen sets of wrestling brothers.

Twelve pairs of brothers on the Helix squad have helped lead the varsity and junior varsity in seven victories this year.

"The teams in the Grossmont District are the best in the county. At least we know we always have good competition," Mr. Charles Feeser, wrestling coach, said.

The brothers on the squad are Gary and Jeff Alschbach, Joe and Rick Bonills, Gary Dean and Gary Lee Connely. Ron and Dennis Coover, Martin and Robin Eady, Gary and Walt Francis, Steve and Ron Gilmore, Al and Tom Lester. Willie and Rich Lorenzen, Frank and Bob Nunez, George and Charlie Peterman, and Jim and John Weir.

"Unlike many sports, in wrestling there is no place to hide. Either you do a good job or you don't," Mr. Feeser said.

Monte Vista Team Wins 3, Loses 1

San Diego County's undefeated wrestling team and Grossmont League-leading Monte Vista has added two victories to its unblemished record. Beginning Jan. 14 with a non-league foe, San Diego, the Monarchs turned the Cavemen back on their own mat, 25-15.

With the league season continuing, the Monarchs declared war on the El Cajon Braves on Jan. 17. For the first time, theMonte Vistans found themselves behind 14-9 after 7 of the 12 matches. Then the Monarchs swept the last five to pull out a 21-14 victory.

The matches between Chula Vista and Mt. Miguel should decide the top team in the county.

Setback Compliance To Cost Builder $4,000

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The Board of Supervisors is going to inspect a house in Lemon Grove to see if it should allow the house to remain with smaller than standard setback from street centerline.

The house, owned by Earl Hanson is at the corner of Fisher and Roosevelt aves., near Mass. Fisher is littler more than an alleyway but the county has plans for its improvement.

The house was built by Grossmont High School students as a work project. It was bought by the Hansons and moved in. It is only 31½ feet from the centerline of Fisher and should be 35 feet.

Attorney Bart Sayer told Supervisors that it would cost about $4,000 to move the house. He said that only about two to four days work remain. He said that all of the plumbing and electrical work are in.

The short setback was opposed by Charles McMahan, representing the Lemon Grove Congregational Church. He said that the church had to grant 20 feet along the east side of Fisher before it could get a permit to build. McMahan said that the church did not care if Fisher was improved but said that if it was not, the church would like to have the land deeded to the county back.

Sayer said that the Hansons got the building permit with the condition that the variance be obtained from the planning commission. He said the building department seemed to feel that it would be granted as a matter of routine.

The reduction was denied by the planners.

A Fisher Lane property owner also objected to the reduction.

Employe of Year To Be Selected By SV Shoppers

Spring Valley Merchants will announce the "Employe of the Year" Feb. 1.

Customers have until Saturday to vote for their favorite employe at the Spring Valley Shopping Center. Ballots are available at shopping center stores.

Contest officials said helpfulness, courtesy and neatness of appearance are things to consider when voting.

3 Persons Injured In 2-Car Crash Here

Three San Diego residents who were hospitalized Monday after a 2-car accident in Lemon Grove were reported in good condition Wednesday.

The accident took place at 3:50 Monday evening at the intersection of Imperial and Broadway.

The California Highway Patrol said citations were issued to drivers of both cars.

Charles Numes of 5074 Madison ave., San Diego, was cited for drunk driving. Mr. Bonnie White of 871 41 st., San Diego was cited for a right-of-way violation.

White and two passengers in his car were taken to College Park Hospital where their conditions were reported good Wednesday.

The passengers were Mrs. Genevieve Stromberg and her son Carlson of 2608 Violet, San Diego.

Frank Kampman Gets Rank of Sergeant

CAMP PENDLETON — Marine Sgt. Frank J. Kampman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Kampman, Sr., of 8220 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, was recently promoted to his present rank, while serving with 4.2 Mortar Battery, Second Battalion, 11th Marine Regiment, First Marine Division, Camp Pendleton.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP — Mrs. Dwight Putnam (left) of Lemon Grove receives an honorary life membership in the P.T.A. from Mrs. R. J. Collette, program chairman of the Foothills Secondary Council. The award was given to Mrs. Putnam Jan. 15 for her work with the American Field Service exchange student program. Mrs. Putnam is district representative of the AFS.

New PONY League Field To Be Dedicated Sunday

The Lemon Grove PONY League will have an "Open House" and registration day Sunday at 2 p.m. when the league shows off its new field for the first time.

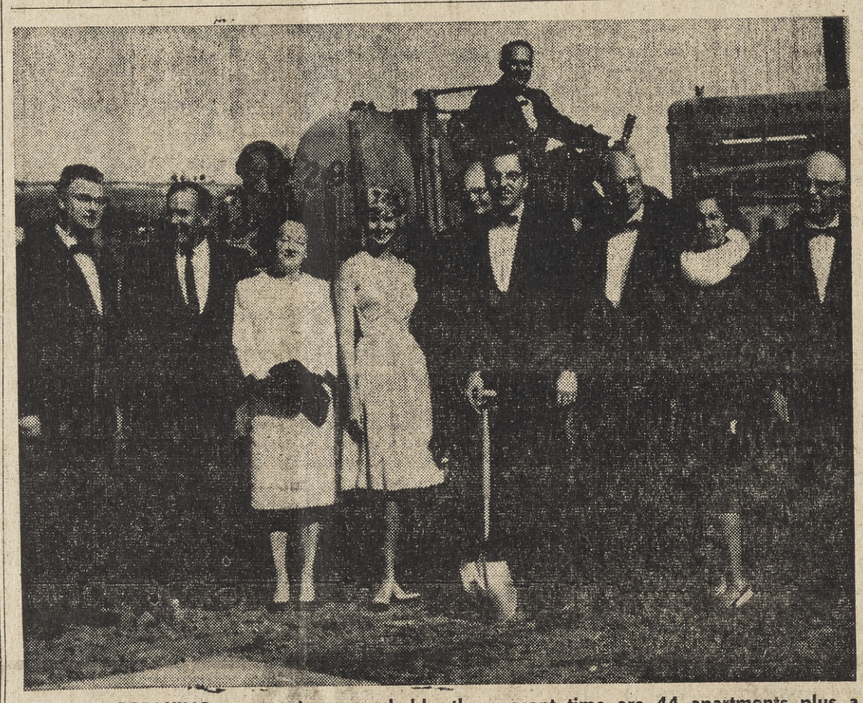
The field, made possible by the free use of the land by Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Knapp, of Lemon Grove, is located at 6997 San Miguel st., behind San Miguel school playground.

According to Warren Swink, league official, the youngsters needed the grounds so that more ballplaying time could be available. Prior to this games were held at the school playgrounds.

More than 20,000 yards of dirt were moved and 850 yards of dirt were donated to make the playing field possible. Backstop, fences, bleachers and grass field were put in through donations. No government funds were asked or received.

The Decades, a band comprised of boys who were recently PONY Leaguers, will supply music at the Sunday affair. Members of the group are David Tyre, Ray Millerm, Gary Johns, Jim Hinton and Floyd Parsons. President of the L.G. PONY League is Webb Carson. Free coffee will be served for the public.

The field, to be known as Knapp Field, is modeled after the $25,000 National City PONY League field.



GROUND BREAKING ceremonies were held at the site of the new La Bonita Town and Country luxury apartments Jan. 16. The word "formal" set the pace and theme for the ceremony, as the men, even the bulldozer operator, were attired in tuxedoes and white gloves. Under a fringed canopy, coffee was served from a sterling silveer coffee service by models from the Powers Agency. The development will encompass a total investment of $2,500,000. Under construction at the present time are 44 apartments plus a private club. Developer Dan Thomas (with shovel) is standing with (from left to right) Pete de Graff, Dick Wilson, Mrs. Ruth Radford, Model Susy Hixor, Ralph Radford, Lee Weins, on tractor, and Gordon Pettit, Miss Julia Feron and Charles Provence. Some of the unusual features of these apartments are free maid service, free decorator service, and free use of club facilities.

VEHICLE INSPECTION FAVORED BY DONOVAN

Republican Assemblyman Richard J. Donovan of this district said that he strongly favors a practical program of vehicle inspection and stricter licensing procedure as a means of reducing the increasing slaughter on California's highways. Speaking before the Independent Garage Owners Association at Michael's in Lemon Grove, Donovan said recent studies showing that many fatalities attributed to driver shortcomings were actually caused by critical part failures.

"The driver is often blamed for accidents in which he was really the unfortunate victim."

The local unit of the IGO, headed by Gene Leonard of Chula Vista, has been consulting with Donovan in developing a plan to assure the mechanical safety of California vehicles.

Donovan, a former law enforcement officer, carried several bills in behalf of traffic safety during the recent General Session of the Legislature. A bill that would have required teenage drivers to take accredited driver training courses as a condition of licensing before reaching 18 was vetoed by the Governor.

"It was a good bill which had the support of many parents, educators, and Traffic Safety Councils across the state", according to Donovan. "I intend to reintroduce it, given the opportunity," he told the garage owners. "Traffic statistics and insurance statistics will support my position on the measure."

La Mesa Lawyer's Sanity Hearing Reset For Tues.

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Attorney Thomas T. Crittenden of La Mesa called Superior Court Tuesday morning to say that he had failed to show up at his sanity case hearing because he had run out of gas.

Superior Court Judge Vincent Whelan then re-set Crittenden's sanity hearing for Tuesday at the County Hospital.

Two court psychiatrists have said that in their opinions, Crittenden should be hospitalized.

He was certified to Superior Court by El Cajon Municipal Court Judge Donald Smith after a doubt arose in the judge's mind as to the attorney's present sanity during a petty theft arraignment. Crittenden is accused of stealing $1.01 worth of material from a La Mesa hardware store.

Crittenden claims he is indigent.

THE MAPMAKERS

By Carol Baker

Who are they? Are they the men who sit down at tables, with red and blue, pencils, marking down streets, in cities, counties and state, for the pleasure and convenience of the people who wish to travel them? Most people think so, — but what about the real mapmakers . . . the ones who go out with pick and shovel and modern heavy equipment and make the roads — mapping out the routes for the people to travel in lasting, solid cement? Actually aren't they the mapmakers behind the pencil movers?

Try traveling down dirt roads for awhile, narrow roads heavy with traffic. That'll make you appreciate the paving contractor, the man responsible for our enjoyment in driving and our safety in travel. Mapmakers? Yes — the paving contractors make them — the pencil movers only draw them! And one of the best mapmakers around here is the Kenneth H. Golden Company, of 5995 Mission Gorge Road, in San Diego, — telephone 283-5551, specializing in grading, excavating, asphalt paving of streets, driveways, easements, trailer courts and parking lots, by the foot or by the mile, for your pleasure, convenience and safety. For quality workmanship call in your reputable paving contractor, the Kenneth H. Golden Company, — your San Diego mapmaker.
